3. What to expect on the day of medical examination

What to bring to the medical examination

a) Valid Identification documents which include:

HAP Letter with either

- original passport or a copy of the passport certified by the Australia's Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) or by a Contracted Service Delivery Partner (Teleperformance); or
- Other documents with a photo for identification e.g. birth certificate, school registration documents, student card for minors not travelling with parents.

b) Polio vaccination certificate.

c) Two passport size photos.

d) Proof of payment (Deposit Slip or Transfer Receipt).

- e) Previous Chest X-rays, if available
- f) Information about any prescription medication that you take currently.
- g) Copies of medical reports about any current or previous medical condition(s). Insufficient information may lead to delays and additional testing.
- h) Prescription eyeglasses or contact lenses if you use them to avoid referral to the ophthalmologist.

Note: Children under 16 years must be accompanied by a parent or a legal guardian, who can sign and make decisions on their behalf. Friends and family members without an appointment for medical examination are not permitted to accompany you (visa applicant) during your medical examination.

Advice regarding medical examination

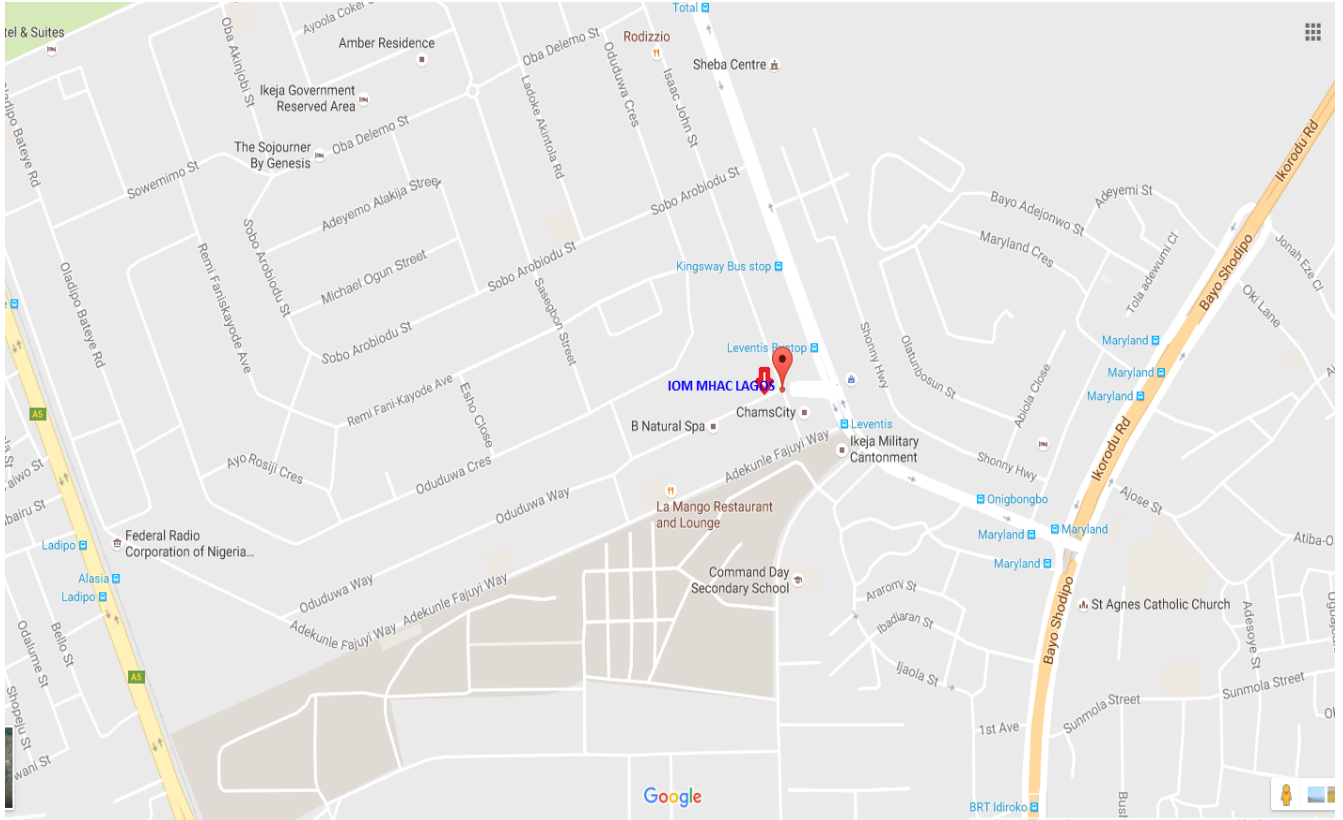

- a) For your medical examination, you will be asked to take off all your clothes except your underwear and bra (for women).
- b) You may require a chaperon to be present during your physical examination, especially if you are to be examined by a physician of the opposite sex.
- c) Do not conceal medical conditions. Deliberate attempts to hide them will be documented in the medical report.
- d) Do not conceal pregnancy. X-ray radiations may harm your unborn baby.
- e) Women are advised to avoid medical exam during menstruation as it may affect results of the urine test.
- f) Postpone or re-schedule your appointment if you or your child is ill with fever.
- g) Your medical examination will take place over a one- day period. Please allow approximately 3 hours for your examination to be completed.
