Migrants’ Take — How Comedy and Drama Skits Inspire Young People on their Migration Choices
How Comedy and Drama Skits Inspire Young People on their Migration Choices

READ MORE

Quiet on set!
Read on

Shining a bright light
Read on

IOM NEWS

Reinforcing the protection and resilience of displaced populations in north east Nigeria through multi-sectoral support.

The UN Resident Coordinator, Edward Kallon, IOM Chief of Mission, Franz Celestin and WHO Country Representative, Dr Wondimagegnehu Alemu paid a visit to Edo
State on 25-26 May 2021. Aim was to strengthen existing partnerships with the State Government in addressing irregular migration and the effects of COVID-19.

Between 27-29 April 2021, IOM trained 34 journalists from print and digital media on migration reporting, protection of migrants’ rights, effective storytelling, and other relevant topics. Journalists from Edo, Delta, FCT, the Plateau, Lagos, Ibadan, Ilorin, and Ebonyi States attended the training held in Abuja.

VIDEOS

RESTORING THE ECOSYSTEM

MY MIGRATION AND REINTEGRATION STORY
Between 22–24 June 2021, IOM organized a Migration Media Dialogue for editors from mainstream and digital media from Edo, Delta, FCT, Lagos, and Borno States. The aim of the event was to foster stronger partnerships and advocacy efforts in the media to promote safe and regular migration as well as discourage irregular migration. Watch a short video HERE.